Head-Quarters India

(Selling AAINBALL Club rights with global management)

YOTI - AAINBALL Global

YOTI has established business in the sport of AAINBALL since 2013. Founder CEO - Mr. Pratap Singh has self invested in the sport completing national and International events like Brig Usman Int'l Trophy Kashmir, Aainball World Championship Morocco, Aainball Desert Championship Kutch Gujarat and many more thus far, formed various verticals to support the business sectors like YOTI FOUNDATION, AAINBALL FEDERATION (INDIA), AAINBALL INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION, CHAKRAVARTI CHAMPIONSHIP PVT LTD etc.. We have land - marked sports history with Aainball brand which is acknowledged by Ministry of Home Affairs, External Affairs, Youth & Sports ministry, National Human Rights Commission of India, Indian Army, Gujarat Police and many corporates, now ready to place his business as the brand - leader world wide for the sport. We are now selling individual state/country rights for different verticals and therefore provide revenue streams for the individual club owners. We will appoint a global marketing/management team to assist in the relative actions to grow the sport and revenues for each owner. Over the next 3 years the AAINBALL will be growing its business empire which has the following business sectors : Sport - National Federation + Events, Media + Agency/Management, Business Development (Patent Copyrights) Product Development, Manufacturing, Construction (Sports School, Competition venue + (Khelshala) Training zones). These are fundamental to the sports growth and will enable all Khelshala (Club) owners to expand revenues.

Letter of Intent of Rights

The founder of AAINBALL is ready to appoint independent rights owners. The owner of rights Khelshala is going to have a lifetime of support from Head Quarters for training, information resources under the International Federation. The owners can take pride in knowing they are creating opportunities for their club on the global stage with the sport of this unique initiative and benefit from the revenues generated by the sports events, media, merchandise and other related products and services being developed for the sport.

This letter of intent is to confirm interest by the given individual/s so that professional documents can be drafted by the federation (formal team) that provide rights for Khelshala to the nominated person/s. The owners of rights to KHELSHALA will not need to be experienced in sport as there are associates within Federation that have volunteered their time and support to grow the sport with or for the owners. The time between the letter of intent and the ownership of rights documentation, allows for both parties to communicate and allows for clauses to be added to ensure both parties are happy with the final agreement. AAINBALL - Chakravarti Championship is creating a one-off licensing fee to khelshala owners which allows the independent owners to fully run the Training within their appointed institution without restraints from traditional licensing agreements.

Founder CEO is happy to include a buy back of rights clause after 12 months to ensure the independent owners are reassured of our commitment to grow sport and business.

On this day.....the interested party..... For AAINBALL CLUB rights . This letter of intent allows AAINBALL to create the first formal draft of business information and logo rights for interested party. A special media production video to launch AAINBALL for your club will be created for owners and appointed management staff on the ground will be managed by head office to start business activities and these will be managed by AAINBALL HQ.

The interested party agrees to pay the one-off club rights to Chakravarti Championship pvt ltd of 50000 INR. Deposit of 20% on first draft being approved and remainder can be negotiated. Our mission is to work together and bring a world of opportunities to our country associates.
